DEMOCRATS ARE ENTHUSED BY SENATOR GORE

Distinguished Visitor
Made Telling Speech
Last Night.

Heard By Large Audience In Opera House Last Night—Name of Vance Cheered—Good Legislation Needed, Declared Speaker—Senator Gore Used Article In Local Republican Sheet As Text and Dealt Republican Party Terrific Blows.

Last night in the opera house Senator T. P. Gore, of Oklahoma, made one of the best political speeches ever heard in Greensboro. For fully two hours he held the undivided attention of an audience that completely filled the vast auditorium and a couple of hundred occupied seats in the boxes and gallery. And this too in spite of the fact that until yesterday afternoon it was not known that the distinguished Oklahoma senator would make a speech here. Had the fact been known in advance the building would have been packed and jammed.

Besides being a fluent speaker Senator Gore is a learned man and is equally at home while discussing sacred or profane history, or the tariff or telling jokes. His words flow in an even and easy manner and are emphasized so as to produce the desired effect. Those who heard him last night were exceedingly fortunate for Greensboro will not soon have as her guest so polished and able a speaker.

Mr. A. Wayland Cooke introduced Senator Gore as a man who denounces strongly whether it is in the hovel or palace and as a tried and true Democrat.

Sensor Gore said he was proud to be in Greensboro, the home of the man who should be representing the district in Congress at the present and also the home of the man who would represent the district after the election. He referred to the fact that he was proud that he, as senator, occupied the seat formerly occupied by North Carolina's distinguished son, Zebulon B. Vance.
The mention of the name of Vance brought forth rounds of applause and the speaker said "In honoring the memory of Vance you honor yourselves."

After telling two or three well delivered jokes the speaker went directly into the heart of his speech. He said he supposed that a few Republicans had honored him with their presence and he would assure them that he extended a cordial welcome. There is nothing that I like better than a "few" Republicans.
He said that there were good Republicans as well as good Democrats. He had no respect for a person, he said, who did not respect the opinion of others. The Republican party is not an aggregation of fools or knaves. Some of the members of the party have as much patriotism and as much integrity and honor as any citizen of the country. But they don't always act like it, he continued.
The Republican party of today is not the party founded by Lincoln, declared the speaker, for it is not like its founders had intended it should be. After the principles established by its founders had been changed then those who nursed the party to its maturity withdrew from it.

As was expected the senator made reference to the article printed in yesterday's News regarding a speech made in 1894. This was his mascot, he said, and wherever it had been printed it brought Democratic victory and would bring victory to the Fifth district. Ever calling the paper the "Industrial News" the speaker used the article as a text and made great capital out of the publication of the article. It not only is devoted to industry, but to classic literature, he said. Continuing he stated that he usually had to pay to have his speeches printed, but this was done gratis, for which he returned his thanks. The date of his speech had been changed, he said, from 1894 to 1896, the former date being correct. He complimented the citizens of having a Republican paper that would come within two years of the fact. Touching upon his inconsistency, Senator Gore admitted that he had been inconsistent, but who has not, he added.
He referred to such men as Washington, Lincoln, Grant, Calhoun and others who were inconsistent. Roosevelt is even more inconsistent than I am, he said, for he is consistent only in his inconsistency. He said he reserved his right to change his opinion at any time.

Touching upon the interrogative as to whether he came to the State instructed Senator Gore replied that he came instructed by his own judgment and guided by the light of his own conscience.
He then stated that the portion of his speech published was a paraphrase from the speech of a Republican leader in Indiana. This shows that it is dangerous to follow a Republican leader, he continued.

Referring to the fact that the article was printed just as he entered the State Senator Gore declared that honorable men do not impute their fellowmen with dishonorable methods. He declared that he did not and would not believe that the article reflected the true sentiment of the honest, honorable Republicans in the State. He here referred to the visit of Mr. Taft to Greensboro two years ago and declared that the Democracy of the state received him with open hands and true Southern hospitality and he felt that if the true and honest Republicans of the state had voiced their sentiments he would have received equally as cordial reception at their hands, even though he was not as great as Taft.

And it says "Has the Leopard changed its spots?" I do not see what the leopard has to do with the tariff, unless the duty is lower on spotted skins than on other colors, continued the speaker.
It might be changed to read "Has the Ethiopian changed his color?" said Mr.
Gore amid terrific applause. And many times did the speaker strike terrific blows at the enemy through the use of the article in question.

Sensor Gore stated that he had been a Populist but that party had been forced into the hands of a receiver and he had been compelled to get into another party. And after carefully considering the virtues of the two national parties he had decided to cast his lot with the Democrats. The speech, a portion of which had been published, proved that he was not biased but had made his choice after due consideration. The senator then proceeded to give his reasons for coming into the Democratic fold.

The Democrats believe in taxation for revenue only, while the Republicans have always worked for a high tariff that will protect the giant trust and monopolies at the expense of the masses of the people, he said. They had revised the tariff four times and had gone upward every time. In fact the party is bowled before the great corporations and is subject to their will. Nearly all the necessities and comforts of life are made by monopolies and hundreds of these monopolies have grown under Republican legislation. "I had rather be a humble citizen and a champion of the right, than to champion the wrong even though it made me great and clothed me in purple and gold," declared Senator Gore amid applause.

The speaker said he believed in the election of senators by the people for if the people cannot govern themselves, then who can, he argued. The audience was here reminded that the last national Republican convention had voted down a plank in its platform providing this measure. He also referred to the power of the speaker of the House of Representatives and said the voice of the people had not been heard in a long time.
But that they are tired of this is evidenced by the results in California, Georgia and Maine.

Sensor Gore said that political parties are servants of the people and not masters. He had rather see a good Democrat elected to Congress than a bad Republican and vice versa. What he wanted to see was good legislation. He was an American first and a Democrat next, he declared amid applause. He here referred to some of the failures of the Republicans to keep their pledges.
If Mr. Taft did what the people wanted him to do he wanted to see him again nominated, but for a year and a half Mr. Taft had been busy carrying Roosevelt's policies out—on a stretcher.

Before closing Mr. Gore spoke of the extravagance of the national administration, the expenditures running into the billions of dollars. Why each year the national government draws from North Carolina in revenue more than $20,000,000, he said. He referred to the appropriations for the army and navy and declared that he had rather see the money expended in building homes than ships and in digging ditches than digging graves and in making life worth living than in taking human lives on battle fields.

In conclusion he urged the Democrats of the State to get to work and send a full delegation of Democrats to the next House which would, he averred, be Democratic and then assist in electing a

PLAN TO BUILD A DORMITORY

G. F. C. Trustees
Launch Movement.

Decide To Undertake To Raise From $25,000 To $50,000 For the Purpose—The College Overflowing With Students and Its Friends See the Need of Providing Additional Dormitory Facilities—Other Business Transacted by Trustees.

At a meeting of the trustees of the Greensboro Female College held at the college yesterday afternoon it was decided to launch at once a campaign to raise from $25,000 to $50,000 for another dormitory. The college has now 185 students registered and could have more if it could room them. To meet the urgent demand for additional dormitory room the new campaign is to be inaugurated.

The college has but recently wound up its efforts to raise an endowment fund of $100,000 and now that that has been done, the friends of the college have agreed upon the new dormitory as the next big forward step.

Reports were made at yesterday's meeting of trustees as to the progress of the work of building a new entrance to the college grounds. Wide concrete steps from West Market street to the campus have been built. These greatly improve the approach to the college.

The trustees authorized the employment of another music teacher. The musical department is unusually full this year.

The members of the Board of Trusttees present were: Rev. M. T. Plyler, Washington; E. A. Poe, Fayetteville; J. P. Redding, High Point; M. D. Stockton, Winston; E. H. Koehntitzky, Mt.
Airy; Rev. G. T. Adams and Gen. J. S.
Carr, Durham; John A. Young, C. A.
Bray and C. H. Ireland, Greensboro.

by the Southern's local ticket agent, that those who have not made Pullman reservations should do so as early today as possible as the space is well nigh taken up, and indications are fine for a good crowd.

charged with overspeeding, being taxed with the costs. Myrtle King was fined

THREE SECTIONS OF NEW CHARTER

Which Will Be Discussed Considerably.

The Section Relating To Duties of Mayor Or Commissioner of Accounts and Finances—Some Think Mayor Should Have General Oversight Over Commissioners and Subordinates—Public Service Corporation Section.

The three sections of the proposed city charter which will doubtless create the most discussion at the mass meeting to be held tomorrow night will be section six, fixing the number of commissioners; section eight, prescribing the duties of the mayor, and section twenty-three, empowering the commissioners to fix the maximum rates of public service corporations, together with the substitute fixing this power jointly with the commissioners and the public service companies with the state corporation commission as an ultimatum if the two bodies cannot agree.

As was stated yesterday morning none of the sections objected to were discussed, this being left open in order that each person might get a copy of the section objected to and study it in order that the sections might be discussed more intelligently. As sections six, eight and twenty-three will doubtless be the ones that will bring out the most discussion they are printed in full below:

Section 6. The Board of Commissioners shall consist of four members, one of whom shall be the mayor, and all of whom shall be elected by vote of the people, as hereinafter provided.

One of said commissioners shall be of Streets, Parks and Cemeteries; one of said commissioners shall be elected and known as the Commissioner of Public Safety; one of said commissioners missioner of Water and Lights; and the Mayor shall be known as the Commissioner of Public Accounts and Finances.

Sec. 8. The Commissioner of Public Accounts and Finances (who is also Mayor) shall be the purchasing agent of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Greensboro, and all property, supplies and material of every kind whatsoever, shall, upon the order of the Board of Commissioners be purchased by him, and when so purchased the bills therefor shall be submitted to and provided by the Board of Commissioners before warrants are issued therefor, when such warrants are issued they shall be signed by the said commissioner and countersigned by some other person to be designed by the Board of Commissioners; he shall be collector of all taxes, he shall issue all license or permits as provided by law, ordinance or resolution adopted by the Board of Commissioners and in the absence or inability of any commissioner to act he shall exercise temporary supervision over the department assigned to the said commissioner, subject, however, to the power of the board to substitute some one else to temporarily perform any of such duties; he shall have control of all employees of his department, and of other officers and employees not by law, ordinance or resolution of the Board of Commissioners apportioned or assigned to some other department; he shall have charge of and supervision over all accounts and records of the city, and accounts of all officers, agents and departments required by law or by the Board of Commissioners to be kept or made; he shall regularly at least once in three months inspect or superintend inspection of all records or accounts required to be kept in any of the offices or departments of the city, and shall cause proper accounts and records to be kept, and proper reports to be made; he shall recommend to the board methods of modern bookkeeping for all the departments, employees and agents of the city, and shall, acting for the Board of Commissioners, audit or cause to be audited by an expert accountant, quarterly the accounts of every officer or employee who does or may receive or disburse money, and shall publish or cause to be published quarterly statements showing the financial conditions of the city; he shall accounts, pay rolls and claims before they are acted on or allowed, unless otherwise provided by law or by order of the Board of Commissioners; he shall procure from all persons, firms or corporations operating public service utilities in the city, and cause to be placed on file, such reports as are by law or ordinance or order of the Board of Commissioners required to be made by said public service corporation to the city or any of its officers, and shall procure copies of such reports as are made to the State or any public department or office, and cause the same to be placed on file, and shall collect all license fees, franchise taxes, rentals and other moneys which may be due or become due to the city; he shall report the failure on the part of any person, firm or corporation to pay money due the city; he shall report to the Board of the Board of Commissioners, cause to be refusal on the part of any such person, firm or corporation to submit to such examination; the assessor, auditor, treasurer, city clerk, city attorney and their respective offices or departments, and all employees therein, and all bookkeepers and accountants are apportioned and assigned to the Department of Public Accounts and Finances, and shall be under the direction and supervision of the commissioner thereof; he shall do and perform any and all other services ordered by the board or may be ordered by the board not herein expressly conferred upon some other department.

Sec. 23. Sub-section (x) To fix from time to time by ordinance as they may deem right and proper, the maximum rates to be charged by any person, firm or corporation for furnishing water, gas, electric lights, heat, power or transportation for the inhabitants of the city of Greensboro and may also fix from time to time the maximum rates to be charged by telephone companies for the use of phones in residences, offices and business houses in said city; provided, the maximum rates above mentioned may from time to time be changed, reduced or increased by said board of commissioners at any time they may deem it right and proper and provided further, such maximum rates shall be sufficient to provide a reasonable compensation on the amount invested to the person, firm or corporation furnishing or performing such service.

The substitute recommended by the board is:

That in the event there is no general law passed during the first thirty days of the 1911 General Assembly conferring a like power upon the North Carolina Corporation Commission, then in that event our representatives in the legislature be and hereby are instructed by the citizens of Greensboro in meeting assembled to incorporate in the charter of the city of Greensboro a provision that rates charged by public service corporations shall be fixed by the commissioners of the city of Greensboro and the public service corporation effected; and in event of disagreement, that the matter of difference be certified to the North Carolina Corporation Commission with power to fix the rates; that the bill establishing the commission form of government for the city of Greensboro be held up for final passing for thirty days after the General Assembly meets, and that our representatives be requested to support a proposition empowering the corporation commission of the State to fix rates to be charged by the public service companies doing business in the towns and cities of the State.

FIRE AT GUILFORD COLLEGE

Barn Belonging To Dr. L. L. Hobbs Destroyed by Flames.

Yesterday morning the barn of Dr. L.
L. Hobbs, president of Guilford College, was destroyed by fire. The origin of the fire is unknown. It was discovered in a large quantity of hay in a loft.
The barn was large and almost new.
There was a large quantity of feed in the barn at the time which caused the flames to spread rapidly. A cow was burned, but all of the horses were gotten out in safety. The loss is about $1,100 with only $400 insurance, which was carried in the Farmers' Alliance.

CONTRACT NOT YET SETTLED

Action Deferred Until Friday Night.

Aldermen Hear Report of Committee Regarding Contract With Public Service Company—A Minority Report—What Was Recommended by Majority —Report Discussed At Length by Aldermen.

The Board of Aldermen met in special session last night for the purpose of hearing the report of the Water & Light Commission and the special committee with regard to a contract with the North Carolina Public Service Company as to lighting the city. While the committee reported in favor of making a contract according to terms agreed upon by the Public Service Company no action was taken, some of the aldermen wishing to further investigate the matter.

The proposed contract is that the company furnish 175 arc lamps or the equivalent in Tungsten the arcs to cost $58 per light per annum and the Tungs-tens to cost $20 per light per annum for the 80 candle power or $15 for the 60 candlepower lamps, this based on an all night, every night schedule. The company is to take over the poles and wire and equipment owned at present by the city for $6,000 as soon as the sale can legally be made, the company to pay 6 per cent interest meantime.
The company is also required to place Tungsten lamps at a distance of 400 feet from an arc light or a circuit if necessary. The 10-cent rate for private consumers is excluded. The committee recommended that unless this contract is made the city go to work to establish a municipal plant. A minority report by Messrs. King and Merrimon was also submitted by Mr. King, who explained the position he had taken regarding the matter.

The matter was discussed at length by Alderman King, Chairman Sergeant, Mr. E. P. Wharton, Aldermen Albright, Ellington, Glascock and Smith. The outcome was that the matter was left open until Friday night at the regular meeting. Aldermen Albright, Ellington and Clendenin expressed themselves as being ready to vote on the report, but Alderman Smith stated that he had rather go slow and he wanted to look further into the matter before committing himself.
So it was agreed to let the matter go over.

Some of the aldermen thought the Public Service Company ought to stipulate in the contract the private rate to consumers, while others thought this had nothing whatever to do with the contract. This latter opinion was concurred in by Messrs. Sergeant and Wharton of the Water & Light Commission. It was pointed out that if the city should refuse to make the contract this would not benefit the citizens in the least as the company would not lower the rate to private consumers, but on the other hand it might cause an increase in the rate. As to the establishment of a municipal plant to furnish consumers the city might install a plant, and then the Public Service Company could cut the rate and in a few years force the city out of business with the result that a vast amount of money would have been put in a plant and as good as thrown away. This point was championed by Mr. Sergeant, who has given more thought to the matter than any other man. The report of the special engineer secured showed, he said, that the company offered street lights cheaper than the city could make the current for.

WANTED TO SELL HIS CHILDREN

MINISTER TRIED TO PUT THEM UP AT AUCTION.

His Scheme Nearly Caused a Riot—Circulars Issued Provoked Indignation Among the Villagers—The Explanation of the Clergyman That It Was a Joke Not Satisfactory.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 18.—There was near-rioting at Circleville, Pa., near Irwin, last evening, when Rev. Thos. G. Boord, pastor of the Wythe Avenue Baptist church, of Pittsburg, after advertising that he would sell two of his five children to the highest bidder, made an effort to auction the children off. The minister never got an opportunity to finish the sale, as 1,000 people protested and the minister was nearly mobbed. Nor were matters better this morning, when Rev. Mr. Boord appeared in the pulpit in Pittsburg, for he was subjected to many slurs there from his congregation, many of whom would listen to no explanation. Late yesterday the following circulars were passed about Circleville, which is the home village of Rev. Mr. Boord:

"Auction tonight. The undersigned will sell at public auction his two children, as hereinafter described.

"One boy seven years old, fair complexion, weight 45 pounds. Strong of body and mind. Has never been to school, but would make a competent newsboy and be able to earn good wages in three years. Will be great special to buyer in less than eight years.

"One girl, aged 10 years, dark complexion, weighs 53 pounds. Has had four years schooling. Was the youngest pupil in her class. Can execute any household duties, such as plain sewing and cooking, dish washing, etc. For a child's nurse cannot be excelled. Will be competent to keep an ordinary house in six years time.

"Sale to take place corner Third and Main streets at 7:30 tonight. Terms and conditions of sale and reasons for selling made known before sale begins. Purchaser must be good moral person."

At the appointed time the Rev. Boord appeared with the two children and made explanation that he had five children and was not able to support them—that he wanted to sell two in order to keep the other three. Some persons in the crowd became abusive and Mr. Boord finally announced a postponement of the auction sale of children.

Late this afternoon Mr. Boord, who is prohibition candidate for the legislature declared that it had been but a joke on his part, that he had intended to illustrate a certain point with the children as examples, but the crowd took him seriously and made trouble.

It Saved His Leg.

"I thought I'd lose my leg," writes J. A. Swensen, of Watertown, Wis. "Ten years of eczema, that 15 doctors could not cure, had at last laid me up. AT THE AGE OF THREE, HIS HAIR TURNED GRAY.

At Seven Young Covington's Head is White, Though Relatives Cannot Account for it.

Bowling Green, Ky., Sept. 18.—Walter Hunter Covington, aged seven, son of James C. Covington, a farmer, living near Bowling Green, has hair which is whiter than that of many a man of fifty. His father says his hair began to turn gray when he was a little past three years old and that since that time it has grown whiter every year.

The elder Covington says he cannot account for the fact, because the family has never had serious trouble and none of the child's relatives have become gray.

The boy's hair is very white on the top and well down the sides, but at the bottom it still remains its ebony hue. The boy says he is so ashamed of his hair at times that he won't mix with anyone but relatives.

HAIR SOFT AS SILK.

New Scientific Treatment Kills Dandruff Germs and Makes Hair Soft.

It is an accepted fact, a proven fact, that dandruff is a germ disease; and it is also a demonstrated fact that Newbro's Herpicide kills the dandruff germ. Without dandruff falling hair would stop, and thin hair will thicken. Herpicide not only kills the dandruff germ, but it also makes hair as soft as silk. It is the most delightful hair dressing made. It cleanses the scalp from dandruff and keeps it clean and healthy. Itching and irritation are instantly relieved, and permanently cured. There's nothing "just as good." Take no substitute. Ask for "Herpicide." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Another Myth Exploded.

"I s'pose a summer cold is bound to hang on a long time, doc."

"I'll let you into a professional secret," responded the doctor. "A summer cold is no harder to cure than any other kind."—Washington Herald.

When Merit Wins.

When the medicine you take cures your disease, tones up your system and makes you feel better, stronger and more vigorous than before. That is what Foley's Kidney Pills do for you, in all cases of backache, headache, nervousness, loss of appetite, sleeplessness and general weakness that is caused by any disorder of the kidneys or bladder. Could Have His Smoke.

The Man in the Chair—I enjoy a quiet smoke.

The Other—Well, you'll never be troubled with crowds while you smoke cigars of that brand.—London Opinion.

Sound mind in sound body is best condition for our highest achievements. Sound body depends on the liver and bowels performing regularly their proper function. Vick's Little Liver Pills correct irregularities and keep these organs in fine shape by this gentle, harmless aid.

Wigg—"The Bible says it is not good for man to live alone." Wagg—"No; I suppose it is unnecessary to have some body to quarrel with in order to be happy."

A Man of Iron Nerve.

Indomitable will and tremendous energy are never found where Stomach, Liver, Kidney and Bowels are out of order. If you want these qualities and the success they bring, use Dr. King's New Life Pills, the matchless regulators, for keen brain and strong body. 25c at Fariss-Klutznick Drug Co.

Do You Open Your Mouth

Like a young bird and gulp down whatever food or medicine may be offered you? Or, do you want to know something of the composition and character of that which you take into your stomach whether as food or medicine?

Most intelligent and sensible people now-a-days insist on knowing what they employ whether as food or as medicine.

Dr. Pierce believes they have a perfect right to INSIST upon such knowledge. So he publishes, broadcast and on each bottle-wrapper, what his medicines are made of and verifies it under oath. This he feels he can well afford to do because the more the ingredients of which his medicines are made are studied and understood the more will their superior curative virtues be appreciated.

For the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and derangements, giving rise to frequent headache, backache, dragging-down pain or distress and kindred symptoms of weakness, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a most efficient remedy. It is equally effective in giving strength to nursing mothers and in preparing the system of the expectant mother for baby's coming, thus rendering childbirth safe and comparatively painless. The "Favorite Prescription" is a most potent, strengthening tonic to the general system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. It is also a soothing and invigorating nerve and cures nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, chorea or St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing nervous symptoms attendant upon functional and organic diseases of the distinctly feminine organs.

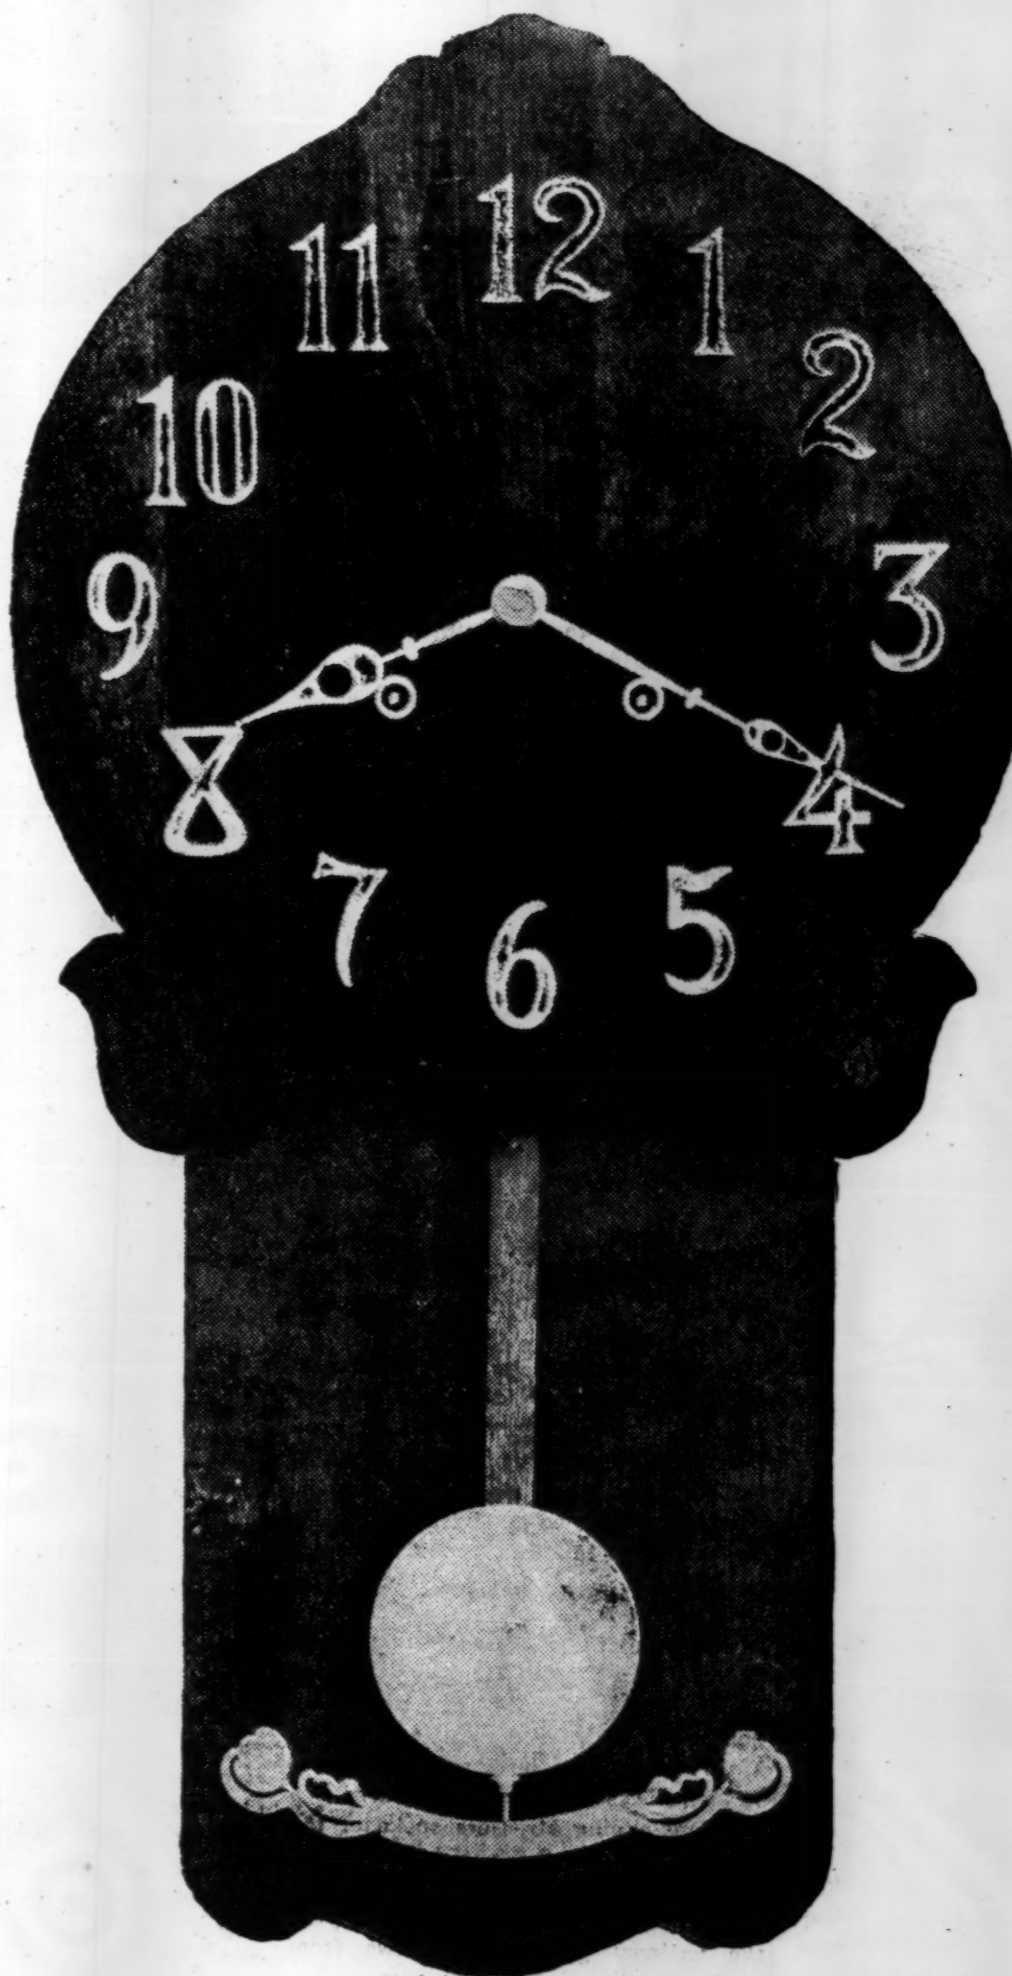

A host of medical authorities of all the several schools of practice, recommend each of the several ingredients of which "Favorite Prescription" is made for the cure of the diseases for which it is claimed to be a cure. You may read what they say for yourself by sending a postal card request for a free booklet of extracts from the leading authorities, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and it will come to you by return post.

It's foolish and often dangerous to experiment with new or but slightly tested medicines—sometimes urged upon the afflicted as "just as good" or better than "Favorite Prescription." The dishonest dealer sometimes insists that he knows what the proffered substitute is made of, but you don't and it is decidedly for your interest that you should know what you are taking into your stomach and system expecting it to act as a curative. To him its only a difference of profit. Therefore, insist on having Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

The Result of a Search

By ARTHUR W. BREWSTER

Copyright, 1910, by American Press Association.

My wife considers me careless, absentminded and generally untrustworthy. She never gives me a letter to post without insisting upon tying a string around my finger and a knot in my handkerchief just as if I were a little boy. She objects to my having more than fifty cents in my pocket at one time because she declares I never stop after buying a cigar to receive my change, and half the time car conductors return me ten or fifteen cents short change.

My wife recently went to the country, leaving cards stuck up all over the house bearing such miserable injunctions as this: "Take the silver upstairs at night." "Lock the front door." "Count your change." Of course I tore them down as soon as she had left. When I parted from her at the station she told me that she had left her jewel case in her bureau drawer and made me promise that I would go straight home and put it in the safe. Instead I went to my office intending to go home at noon and attend to the matter.

It was three days before I removed that jewel case. Before doing so I examined the contents to make sure the articles were all present, and found that a valuable diamond ring always kept there was missing. It behooved me to recover that ring before my wife's return or take the consequences, the nature of which I was quite aware. Fortunately the owner was to remain away several weeks. I advertised a large reward for the ring and no questions asked. A couple of weeks passed and nothing was heard of the ring.

I meditated having a duplicate made with paste diamonds. But I had no pattern for a workman to copy and had little hope of deceiving my wife if I had. She wrote me frequently asking if I did this and I did that and if everything was safe. I replied that I did everything she commanded and a great deal more. When she asked if I had put her jewel case in the safe I said I had—but not when. Lastly when she asked if all the jewels were there, I wrote, "Your jewels are safe," meaning that they were in the safe. It was a miserable subterfuge, and I was ashamed of it.

A week before my wife returned I absented myself from my office, giving my time entirely to hunting the pawnshop to which everybody knows stolen articles usually find their way. Near the end of that period I found the ring. I proved my ownership, or rather, my wife's ownership, and secured the property. Then I asked the proprietor how he came by it. He told me that it had been brought to him by a woman who acted as a go-between for persons who wished to pawn articles, but were too respectable to be seen entering a pawnshop. He gave me the address of this broker, and I went to see her.

"That ring was stolen," I said to her, "but I don't suppose you knew this when you pawned it. If you will tell me who brought it to you I'll make no trouble about your receiving stolen property."

She said that she couldn't leave her shop at the time, there being no one to take her place, but if I would call the next afternoon she would take me to the thief.

I took the ring home and put it in its place, glad enough to escape the obloquy that would have been heaped upon me for my forgetfulness. That night my wife returned and found the house in good condition and nothing missing. I felt very fine over this, assuming some superiority by telling her that for her to leave out the jewel case just before going away was simply shocking. If I hadn't hurried home to take care of it something might have been lost. She made no reply, and I was glad she didn't, for it would have been a catalogue of my own past offenses.

The next afternoon I left the office early and called on the woman broker who was to show me the thief. She was ready for me, and we sallied forth together. The route we took led my way, which was, to say the least, convenient. She finally turned into the street in which I lived, moving in the direction of my home. What was my astonishment when she stopped at my own door?

"All right," I said, trying to conceal my feelings. "Now describe the thief."

She described my own wife.

It was now a clear case that the jewel was not in the case at the time of my wife's departure. Being curious to know why she had pawned it, I wished to speak to her about the matter, but if I did so I would criminate myself in the matter of neglect. I waited till we were together one evening in her room before dinner and the jewel case was on her dresser. I looked over the contents and asked:

"My dear, I don't see your double diamond ring here."

Then she confessed that she had pawned it to get a scapegrace brother of hers out of a scrape.

I looked very serious. "I discovered the loss when I put your case in the safe," I said. "I have recovered it. Here it is."

I handed it to her and told her how I supposed it had been stolen and found it in a pawnshop.

I returned the money loaned on it, and since then my wife has been much more tractable.

Recent Democratic victories must bring a sort of thirty-cent feeling to those prophets who have been predicting the early dissolution of the Democratic party.

"Never bet a dollar," says the Columbia State, "on an election in a State where fried chicken is popular." Well, then, where will one find a State where he can bet a dollar?

Fear of William Barnes, Jr., has led Col. Roosevelt to call on President Taft for the moral support of the administration in the New York fight. The Colonel is evidently getting nervous.

A prize fight announced for Spartanburg county, South Carolina, was called off as a result of the interference of the solicitor of the district. Spartanburg county believes in mills but not in those of the pugilistic variety.

"The only way to my mind to bring about an ideal condition of housekeeping in this country," says Mrs. Nellie Duling Gans, one of the most widely known cooking instructors in the country, "is to start every boy and girl on a course of cooking instruction in the public schools in their first year and keep giving them this instruction until they leave school." To do so would be to encourage a spirit of self-reliance which would be thoroughly wholesome. To be able to do a useful thing and "do it now" is a great accomplishment.

Little Eddie—Say, pa, do political enemies belong to different parties?
Pa—No, my son; they belong to different factions of the same party.—Chicago News.

There's a world of truth in this little joke of the Chicago paper. The fierce political enemies are more within than between parties. And no doubt many have wondered if such a state of affairs can't be remedied. At any rate it could be relieved if the men who cherish bitter political enmities would stop and arrive at some sort of realization of the answer to that fine old question, "What's the use?"

A dispatch from Louisville, Ky., says: Because he played baseball and indulged in other athletic sports, which were distasteful to the members of his congregation, the Rev. Arthur Brooks, pastor of the Methodist church at Crestwood, was voted unfit to have charge of the parish by a majority of his flock.

The "majority of the flock" should have been less severe in their judging of the young minister. But it was more up to the young minister to remember what Paul said about meat and what he would do regarding it if he found it caused his brother in the church to offend. If any one should exercise the Christian grace of forbearance, surely it is the preacher.

U. S. Senator Thomas P. Gore completely captivated his audience last night. When did any speaker here ever have such a fund of fresh illustrations or tell them so imitatively? When did any speaker here display such a grasp on public questions or discuss those questions so lucidly and convincingly? Not in years has such an effective political speech been made in Greensboro as that made last night by this blind man from Oklahoma. Wide information, a well rounded and ripened scholarship, a subtle and flashing humor, and profound conviction combine to make Senator Gore an exceedingly able and entertaining speaker. Despite the short notice given of the address, it was heard by one of the largest and most intelligent gatherings that has assembled here in a long while. The cause of Democracy got a big boost in Greensboro last night and Republicans generally could be excused for pulling a long face. The Democrats of this community are certainly grateful to Senator Gore for his departure, in their favor, from his established rule of speaking only once a day. Having heard him and having seen how thoroughly he does what he undertakes and how much he can accomplish with a single speech, they are quite prepared to understand that to be in the best physical condition for these splendid efforts, he should not undertake more than one in one day. The coming of this virile man from the West will be remembered as a red-letter event in the campaign of 1910 and the united good wishes of the Democrats of this city and county will follow him on his journey through the South, back to his home in Oklahoma and on into the continuance of his brilliant career as one of the country's first statesmen.

TRYING TO STAMPEDE
FARMERS IN MOUNTAINS

Promoters of Swamp Land Farms Seek To Induce Farmers to Change Residence.

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 20.—A prominent citizen from the western section of the state said today that he learned that there were promoters of wholesale farming land enterprises in one and another section of the country going through North Carolina's great interior upland farming sections seeking to dissuade the farmers with their upland and mountain region farms and induce them to sell out and go into new black soil lowlands, drained and otherwise equipped for phenomenal yields as these agents claim. This western citizen says he trusts these Central and Western Carolina farmers will "think twice at least" before abandoning their present farms in the healthiest section of country on the globe and capable of the highest and most profitable cultivation through judicious intensive farming. Before going into new and untried regions where at best he feels certain that there will be a battle with mosquitoes and malaria, with possibly other arch enemies of health and home comforts. This gentleman says that throughout Central and Western Carolina the demonstration farms and acres of corn and other crops subjected to careful intensive cultivation have proven that the highest degree of success is attainable on these upland farms and that there is the advantage of living and rearing one's children in sections of country that produce physical and intellectual giants. He says he has nothing against the development of swamp lands wherever the year, but that he don't want to see the upland farmers stampeded to these sections where the chances are that their health will be sacrificed and probably worse handicaps arise through unadaptability to the new conditions. His advice is for these highland farmers to stay where they are and through intensive farming attain better and more profitable environments than they could in all probability secure if they took the advice of the smooth-tongued agents who are importuning them to change.

The Republican congressional convention for the Fourth district in session here this afternoon elected W. J. Andrews chairman and Willis G. Briggs secretary and endorsed R. A. P. Cooley, of Nash county, independent Democrat, as their candidate to oppose Congressman E. W. Pou. There were two delegations from Wake just as there were two from this county at the State convention and the adjustment was made as it was in Greensboro by allowing the Briggs or Duncan delegates 6 votes in the convention and the Morehead delegates 20 votes. An hour or more was spent in open convention endorsing Cooley, the independent Democrat, who had let it be known that he would not run if the Republicans put out a candidate.

Attending physicians announce this afternoon that Major R. F. Dixon, State auditor, who so narrowly escaped death yesterday through an attack of Angina Pectoris, is rallying steadily with indications that he is safe out of immediate danger with a good prospect of being able to leave the hospital within a week. He suffered considerably at intervals during the night, additional operations being required. But his condition is good today.

"This is simply a case of putting two and two together," remarked the jovial minister when asked to perform a double wedding.

Quiet Home Wedding Yesterday Morning At Bride's Home on North Cedar Street.

The home of Mrs. J. L. McClamroch, North Cedar street, was the scene of a quiet home wedding yesterday morning at 11 o'clock when her daughter, Miss Maggie McClamroch, became the bride of Mr. Clyde Penny, of Cincinnati, O. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. K. McLarty, the pastor of West Market Street Methodist church, in the presence of the immediate relatives of the couple.

The bride was attired in a handsome blue traveling dress. The parlor, where the ceremony was performed, was decorated with palms and ferns.

Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Penny left for Knoxville, Tenn., to attend the Appalachian Exposition, and from there will go to their future home in Cincinnati.

The bride is the charming daughter of Mrs. J. L. McClamroch and has many friends throughout the city. The groom is an energetic young business man of Cincinnati, being connected with the Norton Machine Company, of that city.

SOCIETY WOMEN MADE A TARGET

DR. WHARTON DOES NOT MINCE WORDS IN SERMON.

Says Women of Society Either Have No Conscience or Are Natural-born Fools—Hobble Skirts, Directoire Gowns and Indescribable Hats Are Hatched in Workshop of the Devil.

Baltimore, Sept. 19.—In a vigorous sermon at Brantley Street Baptist church yesterday morning the pastor, Rev. Dr. H. M. Wharton, declared that "the society women of the present day either have no conscience or are natural-born fools." He also stated that "the directoire gowns, hobble skirts and the indescribable hats that are worn by women are hatched in the workshop of the devil." He then denounced other women for trying to defraud the government by smuggling into the country a manner of jewels and valuables, for carousing at road-houses, for drinking, gambling and playing cards for a pastime at fashionable clubs, for neglecting their husbands and children and for smoking cigarettes. His subject was, "The Conscience of a Woman," and he said in part:

"The so-called land of society of the present day is a disgrace to the community in which she lives, and she should be branded as such. Even from the earliest times it has been shown that woman was disobedient and dishonest. Since then she has steadily become worse, and if Mother Eve was to appear on earth today she would be a society woman. She would drink, smoke and do other things that are revolting. Eve was placed in Paradise and was surrounded by blessings and comforts of creation. Now the world is full of women and she is still playing the mischief with mankind. Think of the fashionable society woman trying to defraud the government under which she lives. She will look a customs inspector straight in the eye and tell him that she has no jewels in her possession which she has bought abroad. At the same time she has a diamond necklace or a string of pearls attached to her garter or sewed to her undergarments, where she knows that the inspectors will not search, for she thinks that they are the gentlemen who will think her the lady. This is in itself deceitful, and she is but carrying out the heritage of Eve.

"Change the scene, and you will see the same woman at her club, playing cards with all the skill of a sport. And at the same time she sips from a golden cup wine of an amber color. Between drinks and the deal she smokes perfumed cigarettes, and if one should happen to cross her path she stamps a daintily shod foot, which indicates that she is angry and does not care to hear any more on the subject. Even the clothes that they wear tend to throw them lower in the eyes of men, and they will eventually have the effect of breaking down all safeguards and barriers. It would be charitable to say that such women are natural born fools.

"But there is another view of the woman. Look at the faithful wife and toiling, devoted mother. Behold her as she sits here in this congregation today, and you are bound to say that she is a good woman and a follower of Jesus Christ. She has a conscience and a soul, in spite of the sins of her sisters. Women as those before me today are the hope of the home, the strength of the church and the pride of the nation. Therefore, I say to you, my sisters, lead us men on. We will follow you, and will forever turn a deaf ear to the songs of sirens who would transform us into beasts."

AMUSEMENTS

Yesterday morning's Raleigh News and Observer contained the following notice of "Beulah," the attraction at the Grand tonight.

"Beulah," dramatized from Augusta J. Evans' book, was the attraction at the Academy of Music, last night and at a matinee yesterday, the title role being taken by Miss Janet Waldorf.

"The performance was enjoyed by the audience and was quite well presented, the different characters being personated by actors who gave evidence of study of the human heart interest of the play. The drama is one of deep interest and it held the attention of the audience closely. It is a play which has in it much to attract."

A TRUE BILL IN VESTAL CASE

Case Will Likely be Set For Trial Today.

And Special Verdict of One Hundred Men Summoned To Select Jury From—Dr. Vestal Indicted for Murder in First Degree and Mrs. Vestal and Levy Maynard As Accessories Before the Fact—Other Cases in Court.

In Guilford Superior court yesterday afternoon the grand jury appeared in court in a body and returned a true bill against Dr. W. L. Vestal, Mrs. Vestal and Levy Maynard, all of High Point. Dr. Vestal is indicted on the charge of murder in the first degree, while Mrs. Vestal and Maynard are indicted on the charge of being accessories before the fact. The latter is still at large.

The defendants, it will be remembered, caused the death of a young girl, Bessie Thomasson, by reason of Dr. Vestal's having performed an illegal operation. The other defendants are charged with having assisted in the operation either directly or indirectly.

The doctor and his wife will probably be arraigned in court today and the case set for trial. A special venire of 100 men will be summoned to select the jury from. The defendants are represented by able counsel and the case will likely be hard fought.

Callie Nettles, the negro woman against whom a true bill was returned Monday, was arraigned yesterday. No date was set for the trial, but the case will probably be taken up this afternoon. Nearly all of the jail cases have been disposed of.

Considerable time was taken up yesterday morning in trying the case of State vs. D. H. Collins. Mr. Collins was indicted on the charge of failing to turn over a fine imposed by himself as a justice of the peace within the time required by the statutes. However, he produced a receipt from the county treasurer to the effect that the fine was paid into the county school fund within six days after the case was tried. A verdict of not guilty was returned.

Levi Richardson, who was found guilty of assault with a deadly weapon on Monday, was given three months on the county roads. Osear Robbins, who was charged with the same offense, was given six months on the roads. Foster Benton, who was charged with embezzlement, was sent to the road for a year and a half. Charles Walker received a like sentence for larceny.

Mother's Joy Cures Pneumonia.

Mothers, there are many so-called preparations on the market for croup and pneumonia and they are very good for croup but there is only one that will cure pneumonia and that one is Mother's Joy. We know of several cases that it has cured after the good doctor had given them up. Mothers, keep it in the house. Croup is relieved at once with it. Washington chemists say it's the best preparation they ever analyzed. Sold by all druggists. Goose Grease Co.

A Good Position

Can be had by ambitious young men and ladies in the field of "Wireless" or Railway telegraphy. Since the 8-hour law became effective, and since the Wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country there is a great shortage of telegraphers. Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good chance of advancement. The National Telegraph institute operates six official institutes in America, under supervision of R. R. and Wireless Officials and places all graduates into positions. It will pay you to write them for full details at Cincinnati, O., Philadelphia, Pa., Memphis, Tenn., Davenport, Ia., Columbia, S. C., or Portland, Ore., according to where you wish to enter.

Very few people who have not made a study of the subject can tell good shoes from the other kind. Shoes worth $2.50 and those worth $3, when made on the same lasts and finished in the same style, look very much alike—so much so that often even an expert couldn't tell one from the other without cutting them open and getting at their true inwardness. All of which goes to show that it pays to buy shoes from people in whom you have confidence, people who will sell you good shoes and who will back up what they tell you about them. There are two things that have done a great deal towards building up our splendid shoe trade in this town—one the selling of good shoes, the other our "money back if you don't like the goods" rule, backed up by a guarantee of good wear. Our fall stock is now complete, and we will take great pleasure in showing you some of the best shoes you ever looked at.

Kid Toilet Slippers—We have just received another shipment of those nice black and red kid toilet slippers, all sizes from 2 1-2 to 8, price $1.25. Also black and red suede "Fluffy Ruffles" boudoir slippers, very fine grade, price $2.00. Thacker & Brockmann.

New button and laced shoes for infants, 50c, 75c, and $1.00. Same with spring heels, 65 and 75c. Babies' soft sole shoes, white, black, tan, and patent, button and laced, 25 and 50c. Big stock button and laced shoes for small girls and boys at popular prices. Thacker & Brockmann.

It begins to feel like frost these mornings. Better bring your girls and boys in and let us fit them up with a nice pair of new shoes for fall wear. All sizes here now made from the best leathers in correct shapes for growing feet. Thacker & Brockmann.

LONG DISTANCE ROAD BUILDING

Highway 380 Miles Long Finished In One Hour.

The greatest piece of road building the world ever witnessed was pulled off in Iowa a few days ago when, in the short space of one single hour, a line of road 380 miles in length and stretching entirely across the State of Iowa was put in the most perfect condition of any road West of the Mississippi river. Weeks and months were spent in preparation for the work, but not a pick or shovel was used until the designated second ticked off. Then, as if by magic, 10,000 workmen swarmed on to the roadway, and when they ceased work six minutes later Iowa had one of the finest long distance roads in the entire west.

And not the least interesting thing in connection with the tremendous piece of work is the fact that not a man of the entire 10,000 engaged on the work received one cent of wages. Good will and patriotism alone are responsible for the splendid showing.

Last winter the Iowa roads became so fearfully bad that traffic was practically killed and farmers were compelled simply to remain in their homes. Finally the matter became a political question, and both parties got behind the movement. Governor Carroll called a "good roads" meeting at Des Moines early last March, and out of this meeting was evolved the plan of a "river to river" road, stretching from Council Bluffs, Iowa, on the Missouri river to Davenport on the Mississippi, a distance of 380 miles straight across the State from east to west.

"Make the river to river road as near perfect as is possible to make just common dirt," was the sense of the good roads convention.

Instead of appointing new committees to handle the work the regular Republican and Democratic committees in each county through which the road would pass were appealed to. The chairmen of the committees of each party were asked to get in the game and work for the road. Everybody was agreed to do so, and soon a rivalry was created between Republicans and Democrats, each to see which party would have the most workmen "on the job" when the time for work arrived.

A Saturday was selected as the day and from 9 o'clock to 10 o'clock the hour of work. Every farmer along the way was personally seen by the committees, and practically every man agreed to give the one hour that was asked for. Farmers were asked to bring their plows, scrapers and road drags, and an organization equal to those employed in professional railroad building was worked out.

In the weeks preceding the work all bridges and culverts along the road were repaired and put in first class order, that no delay might come to the road builders when once the latter started working.

The result of the organization was shown on the Saturday the road was built. Shortly before 9 o'clock in the morning farmers began getting out in the road. Hundreds and thousands of plows, picks, shovels, scrapers, road drags, grading machines and other implements were brought along. Every farmer brought his team with him. Superintendents and overseers had been appointed in readiness when, promptly at 9 o'clock, the order was issued to "fall to."

And 10,000 determined men "fell to." For an hour they continued working with might and main. At 10 o'clock the job was finished and the farmers went back to their fields, leaving Iowa the possessor of the finest piece of long distance roadway in the west.—Pittsburg Gazette-Times.

Don't Break Down.

Severe strains on the vital organs, like strains on machinery, cause breakdowns. You can't over-tax stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels or nerves without serious danger to yourself. If you are weak or run-down, or under strain of any kind, take Electric Bitters, the matchless, tonic medicine. Mrs. J. E. Van de Sande, of Kirkland, Ill., writes: "That I did not break down, while enduring a most severe strain, for three months, is due wholly to Electric Bitters." Use them and enjoy health and strength. Satisfaction positively guaranteed. 50c at Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.

The Sense of Humor.

A man has a sense of humor or he has not. If he has not he cannot acquire it; if he has it by birthright he cannot lose it with the passing of years. The only change as life goes on in one who has this inborn sense is that different things appeal to it from those that excited amusement in youth, but in this it is like other mental faculties. As judgment mellow and ripens, so the power of discovering those things that excite smiles becomes more discriminating. Humor is not a physical attribute to fade as the body loses its youthful elasticity, but purely mental. Men who possess it in goodly measure have been known to smile on their deathbeds over the very comedy of life.—Indianapolis Star.

A Woman's Wit.

The husband of Lydia Childs was an invalid for many years. He was not well off in this world's goods; and much of the support of the family was earned by the wife. Thinking of this and of his wife's many sacrifices for his comfort, Mr. Childs once said to her regretfully, "My dear, I wish I were Croesus."

Whereupon Mrs. Childs, with ready wit and gracious tact, responded, "You are Croesus, for you are king of Lydia."—Los Angeles Times.

INFLAMED KIDNEYS

Medical writers declare it incurable after the sixth month whether albumenous or not.

The average man prefers to think of it as "kidney trouble" and lets it go until the census shows this appalling fact—out of 63,000 deaths from kidney troubles the last census year over nine months of them (58,000) took the form of "Bright's Disease" although it is quite probable that nine-tenths of these were called it "kidney trouble" when it was a matter of fact the only possible cure laid through a specific for Bright's Disease.

There never was one until Fulton worked out his Renal emollient (Fulton's Renal Compound).

Since then inflammation of the kidney—whether albumenous or not or whether called "kidney trouble" or "Bright's Disease" or whether six months or six years old commonly yields.

If you have kidney trouble over six months no matter what you call it is the only hope. Efficiency 87 per cent where patients do not wait until stricken although some of them recover. It can be had in Greensboro at the Fariss-Klutznick Drug Co.

RAINING CATS AND DOGS.

Various Explanations of the Origin of This Expression.

Many explanations have been given of the origin of the expression "raining cats and dogs." One is that it is a perversion of the French "catadoupes," a waterfall—"It is raining a catadoupes," or cataracts. Another explanation is that the male blossoms of the willow tree, which are used on Palm Sunday to represent the branches of palm, were called "cats and dogs" in some parts of England, where they increase rapidly after a few warm April showers, and the belief prevailed that the rain brought them.

Others trace the saying to northern mythology, in which the cat is said to have great influence on the weather, and sailors still have a saying, "The cat has a gale of wind in her tail," when she is unusually frisky. Witches that rode upon the storms were said to assume the form of cats, and the stormy northwest wind is called "the cat's nose" in the Harz mountains even at the present day. Then the dog is a symbol of wind, which in old German pictures is figured as the head of a dog or wolf from which blasts issue. The cat therefore symbolizes a down-pour of rain; the dog, strong gusts of wind, which accompany it, and so a rain "of cats and dogs" is a heavy rain with wind.

The Lash or a Fiend would have been about as welcome to A. Copeer, of Oswego, N. Y., as a merciless lung-racking cough that defied all remedies for years. "It has most trouble some at night," he writes, "nothing helped me till I used Dr. King's New Discovery which cured me completely. I never cough at night now." Millions know its matchless merit for stubborn colds, obstinate coughs, sore lungs, la-grippe, asthma, hemorrhage, croup, whooping cough, or hayfever. It relieves quickly and never fails to satisfy. A trial convinces. 50c., $1.00. Trial bottle free. It's positively guaranteed by Fariss-Klutznick Drug Co.

One Seat Enough. "I see you have only one chair in the kitchen, Mary. I must get another one for you."

"You needn't mind, ma'am. I have none but gentleman callers."—Buffalo Express.

Mrs. Jacob Wilmet, Lincoln, Ill., found her way back to perfect health. She writes: "I suffered with kidney trouble and backache and my appetite was very poor at times. A few weeks ago I got Foley's Kidney Pills and gave them a fair trial. They gave me great relief, so continued till now I am again in perfect health." Holton Drug Co.

SNAKE IN MAIL POUCH, SO POSTMISTRESS FLED.

Girl Assistant Did, Too, but Postmistress Returned and Killed the Reptile. Butler, Pa., Sept. 18.—It became known today that for three weeks the Federal government has been on the trail of a snake. Post Office Inspector George W. Craighead, of Pittsburg, has been assigned to the case upon complaint of Miss Winifred Turk, postmistress at Hilliards, that she found the reptile—three feet long—in a sack which was thrown off the train here.

Both Miss Turk and her woman assistant fled from the postoffice at the discovery, but later the postmistress returned and pluckily killed the intruder. Railway postal clerks are being examined, but declare their innocence, and say the reptile must have crawled into the bag while it lay on the station platform.

A Reliable Medicine—NOT A NARCOTIC

Mrs. F. Marti, St. Joe, Mich., says Foley's Honey and Tar saved her little boy's life. She writes: "Our little boy contracted a severe bronchial trouble and as the doctor's medicine did not cure him, I gave him Foley's Honey and Tar in which I have great faith. It cured the cough as well as the choking and gagging spells, and he got well in a short time. Foley's Honey and Tar has many times saved us much trouble and we are never without it in the house." WORKING FOR A BIG FAIR.

Secretary Garland Daniel Talks Enthusiastically of the Outlook.

One of the busiest men in town these days is Mr. Garland Daniel, secretary of the Central Carolina Fair Association, who is devoting all his thoughts by day and his dreams by night to the big fair to be held in Greensboro October 11-14. There is an old saying to the effect that, when you see one circus you have seen them all, and in the minds of many people the same belief obtains as to fairs, but a talk with Secretary Daniel will convince one that all fairs are not alike.

For instance, this year several new departments have been added to the Central Carolina fair that will interest many people in different ways, and the premium list has been changed in such a way as to show that the fair of 1911 is to be more of an educational and industrial exhibition than a mere pastime with an ordinary midway.

A new feature that is attracting much attention this year is the boys' corn-growing contest department, and it is hoped that all the boys who have entered the contest in this county will compete for the prizes that are offered.

The premium list is more attractive than ever, premiums being offered for what the farmers of this locality actually produce. Secretary Daniel has carefully revised the departments of field and garden, horses, cattle, sheep, swine, horticulture, poultry supplies, ladies' fancy work, fine arts and painting, education and home industries. It will be observed that he has said nothing of the poultry department, but this was intentional, for the reason that the fair this year has cut out all foreign exhibitors, confining the poultry exhibits to Virginia, North and South Carolina. Thus all professional poultry exhibitors are barred and the people will be given an opportunity to see what is being done in the poultry line here at home.

Referring to the midway, Mr. Daniel said: "This, of course, will be the best ever. We have succeeded in securing Darling's dog and pony show, the finest in the United States; Rollins' animal show, the largest animal show on the road today; George M. Burk's Wild West show, which is a clean, nice, up-to-date show in every respect; St. Gaude, the world's greatest educated horse; the little Russian prince, and many others too numerous to mention. Such a midway has never been exhibited before in North Carolina." Mr. Daniel says he has cut out the girl shows, the "Soul Kiss" and "The Girl From Reetor's."

The free attractions are far superior to anything ever offered here before. Madam Sundry will be on the fair grounds every day and will loop the loop in an automobile. This is a death-defying act. "Coleman, who is now giving balloon ascensions at the Appalachian exposition, will be here and give a balloon race with three balloons. The association is also on a trade for the great flying machine man, Curtis. Educated dogs and ponies will perform in front of the grand stand for the amusement of the children, and for the entertainment of the grown folk there will be all kinds of acrobatic work, etc.

The directors of the association have set aside the sum of $5,000 as purses for the horse-racing. There will be about 17 stakes represented on the program and the horses are expected to be the finest ever seen in this section. There is no doubt that the racing will be fast, spicy and attractive—and all in all, it appears that this is to be the best fair ever held in the state—a fair that never disappoints."

Engagement Announced.

Announcements have been issued as follows:

"Dr. and Mrs. Edmund Harrison, Greensboro, N. C., announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Kate, to Mr. Thos. Sharpe Knight, of Hopkinsville, Ky. The marriage will take place early in October at the home of Mr. Roger W. Harrison, Greensboro, N. C. No cards."
